

Harvest Holiday News

October 2017

Note from the Chair

Love October! It's the closest thing we have to "fall" in North Texas. The annual Harvest Holiday Festival is only weeks away so hopefully you are registered and will attend both the Pre-Festival and the Festival this year. Note that members will meet before our dance on Sunday, November 12, to finalize plans.

Our September Fun Dance and our Autumn Rounds last month were two great events! Big thanks to the cuers and members who brought snacks, worked the kitchen, door, and clean up. We look forward to our Fun Dance this month on Sunday, October 8, and hope to see lots of dancers enjoying the afternoon at Swingtime Center.

Happy dancing!

John and Barrie Edstrom

Note from JL & Linda Pelton, Fun Rounds Chair:

Our Autumn Rounds dance was a well-attended dance. We had many compliments on the varied program by attendees and feedback that they had a great time. All the cuers did a great job using the request pad to pick dances that were requested by the attendees. Cuers included Dave Berling who started off the dance, followed by Barb Yeargan, Walter Brewer, Chris Farabaugh, Karen Gloodt, Jack von der Heide, and Christine Hixson. JL Pelton finished the afternoon cuing.

A special thank you to those many Harvest Holiday members who helped set up, take money, bring refreshments, and clean up at the end of the dance.

Congratulations – Sixty Years

Congratulations to Karen and Ed Gloodt who are celebrating 60 years of marriage on October 5, 2017.
