

Harvest Holiday News

October 2022

Note from the Chair

Many of our members plan to attend the Centex Festival next weekend in La Grange. Randy & Marie Preskitt are the featured clinicians.

To avoid the Centex festival, the Harvest Holiday Fun Dance was moved to October 16. This should ensure that we have a good attendance at the October Fun Dance.

The annual Harvest Holiday Festival is only weeks away. Be sure to register now and encourage a friend to attend, too.

JOHN PORTER - Update:

John is undergoing intensive retesting at UT Southwestern and participating in the POSH program (Perioperative Optimization of Senior Health). The goal of POSH is to set the stage for a safe surgical experience and a smooth recovery for older patients. This is all in order to qualify for surgery which is tentatively set for November 16. John and Leota greatly appreciate your continued prayers and support.

Note from JUNE GARTLIR

I would like to thank the round dance community for the donations, cards, phone calls, and emails received in Ken's memory. I have many fond memories of Ken and me dancing with everyone. And he loved to dance!!!

I also thank all who have sent me get well cards , phone calls , and emails as I recuperate from hip repair. You were our family here in Dallas. My children live in Georgia , just north of Atlanta. I hope to be moving near them in the future. Hugs to all of you, June

Sad News - SHARON HAMNER (1/10/1944-10/6/2022)

It is with a heavy heart to report that Sharon passed from this world on October 6. Sharon was a very active member of Harvest Holiday for over 20 years until she had to stop dancing for health reasons. She moved to Tennessee in 2019 to be near her daughter and family.

Her daughter's e-mail note said, in part:

"Hello, this is Stacey, Sharon's daughter. I wanted to let you know that my Mom passed away yesterday around noon. She was surrounded by her family who loved her dearly. We are all heartbroken. We will be having a celebration of life memorial for my Mom soon."

Our condolences go out to Stacey and family.
